

Contents

Sl. No.	Subject	Page
1	Editorial Strengthening mental health response to COVID-19: An opportunity call Apurvakumar Pandya and Deblina Roy	01-03
2	Review Potential determinants of age-related severity in COVID-19 Enara Arevalillo-Gozalo	04-18
3	Review Mental health concerns of healthcare workers during the COVID-19 pandemic Maheema Dua	19-27
4	Review Burnout in mental health professionals during the COVID-19 pandemic Anoushka Thakkar	28-35
5	Viewpoint Mental health and legal implications of child pornography during COVID-19 pandemic lockdown: “How safe are our children?” Ginni Sharma, Shweta Singh and Aastha Pant	36-39
6	Conceptual Essay COVID-19 and prisoners in India: Most neglected population and their mental health needs Husain Himani and Apurvakumar Pandya	40-49
7	Original Study Dimensions of teenagers’ experiences of loneliness during COVID-19 induced social lockdown: A study in India Gautam K Ghosh, Narender Sindhi, Salam Gautam Singh, Jojo Thomas and Vanlalhumi	50-59
8	Original Study Are emerging adults more prone to COVID-associated psychological distress than their older adult counterparts?: Across-sectional comparative study Priya Kotwani, Vaibhav Patwardhan and Apurvakumar Pandya	60-66
9	Commentary Interventions for the management of vicarious trauma among mental health professionals during COVID-19 Pragya Lodha	67-73
10	Commentary Violence against doctors: Mental health repercussions and remedies Sujita Kumar Kar, Amit Singh, Sarvodaya Tripathy and Diwakar Sharma	74-76
11	Commentary COVID vaccination: Myths and hesitancy, and impact on vaccine drive worldwide Sarvodaya Tripathy and Olusegun A. Ogunmola	77-86
12	Viewpoint Mental health implications of COVID-19 and lockdown among general and special populations: An Indian perspective Shruti Sharma, Mani Mehra and Surabhi Dayal	87-90

---